To the dear team of IN-PLANET,

As representatives of our NGO from North Macedonia, we would like to express our appreciation for the good organisation of the project. Our team members, Mirce Lazorovski, Tamara Petrović Lazorovska, and Daniela Karamachoska, always received clear and timely information. The internal agreements, regular communication via email, the project website, and the Facebook page ensured that we could follow the progress without difficulty. The dissemination and follow-up instructions were also well explained and helpful in preparing our participants.

The implementation of the Youth Exchange/Professional Development Activity was of high quality. The trainers showed professionalism, the sessions were interactive, and the balance between practical coaching tools and reflective discussions was very effective. Our participants felt motivated and supported throughout the PDA.

We especially valued that the follow-up activities included both online tasks and local actions. This gave our participants the opportunity to transfer their learning directly to young people in their communities, creating meaningful impact.

The project clearly brought added value to our organisation. We gained useful coaching methods and tools that can now be applied in our youth work, and we also established strong partnerships with NGOs across Europe. For our participants, the experience significantly increased their confidence and skills in working with young people.

For possible improvement, we would suggest allowing a little more space for informal exchange and structured reflection during the PDA, as the program was sometimes very intensive. More free space could help participants process the learning even more effectively.

What we appreciated the most was the strong cooperation between partners, the positive group spirit, and the practical tools that can be directly applied in our daily work. Overall, this project was a very positive and impactful experience both for our organisation and for our participants.

With appreciation,
